50th Anniversary: Elnusa Organizes PUBG Mobile Tournament

Jakarta, August 21, 2019 – PT Elnusa Tbk (Elnusa) is turning 50 this year. In his golden age, Elnusa held various sports tournaments titled Olympic or Elnusa Olympic (EN-Lympic). Eleven sports are competed and are open for participation by various companies. The sports that are competed include badminton, bowling, golf, basketball, bridge, futsal and e-sport Player Unknown's Battlegrounds (PUBG).

Elnusa's Head of Corporate Communications, Wahyu Irfan stated, "EN-lympic is part of Elnusa's birthday series. We are delighted to be able to hold a variety of sports matches and include the PUBG e-sports that are being favored by millennials. "

The EN-Lympic event was officially opened on Friday, August 2 at Graha Elnusa-Jakarta. For the opening of the PUBG sport officially began this afternoon (21/8). More than 170 participants from various companies have registered and will compete in the fight for a total prize of tens of millions of rupiah with two squad and solo categories. Participants not only came from workers in the Jakarta area, but other regions such as Balikpapan, Batam and Cepu.

Wahyu added, "This PUBG Tournament is a new style of sport that can be a place for millennials to train themselves in maintaining the cohesiveness in a team in developing strategies."

In organizing this tournament Elnusa cooperated with several parties and sponsors. Among them is BOSS entertainment which is one of the e-sport event organizers in Indonesia and sponsors such as ASUS ROG, Game Sir and YesDok.

"We are grateful for the good cooperation and support that has been given for the smooth running of this tournament. Hopefully this tournament can continue to be held in accordance with the expected goals," Wahyu concluded.
